SETTLEMENT DESIRABLE.

It seems the rational thing for the general council to invest City Solicitor Campbell with authority to negotiate with the attorney for the East Tennessee Telephone company for a settlement of the misunderstanding existing between the city and the company. Business concerns and even emotions when they wish to treat on a matter, usually delegate one man each side to carry on the negotiations. It is self-evident and experience proven that two men can come to an understanding quicker than a half a dozen with varying temperaments, bent of mind and personalities. Although the differences between the corporation and the city of long standing, there is only the question of 1000 subscribers actually inventing the issuance of a franchise to the telephone company.
 When the committee of the general council took up the matter with representatives of the company, the council insisted that the terms of the franchise should become operative as rates when the company should have 4,000 subscribers. The company insisted that the number be 3,000.
 That was the only barrier to consummation of the agreement, and it is reasonable to suppose that if it been left to one man for each side, they would quickly have come to terms. The company has for years been operating under an old grant from the state, and the city has been insisting that a franchise should be granted by the company. This proposition readily was assented to, but terms concerning rates based on number of subscribers naturally came up. The city naturally wanted a rate that would pay for the business course, save where its vicinity is at stake. Solicitor Campbell urges a settlement on the ground that even if the city wins in the prolonged law suit, it will be out thousands of dollars, without gaining any material reward from its victory.

 He further promises to see that the city's interests are protected in the compromise. No one in the general council seems to fear the solicitor's honesty when he asserts that he is doing this only because he sees in it the single chance for a settlement of this grievous dispute. He would not likely assume such a responsibility voluntarily without some weighty reason. The proposal is worth a trial.

Memphians were always known to be thrifty, but the city lays claim to some sporting blood. One of her well known rounders seems to have got the two elements mixed in his composition, and in a spirit of magnanimity, just to make a poor little chorus girl have a good time and always think well of Memphis, he let her have his diamonds to play with until she left town. The company started south and the jewels started with it and got as far as Nashville.
 He had the naughty corybée arrested for breach of trust and, it is said, recovered one of his diamonds.
 Pickle little dancers, who have been used to no one more sophisticated than the easy marks of New York and Pittsburgh, will have to inform themselves that Memphis sports know a thing or two, and don't let their jewelry go any farther than their affections.

Governor Beckham boasts that the Democratic state primary is held a year before the election so that the people will have plenty of time to meditate and not be taken by surprise with a snap nomination. On the gloomy other hand, Senator McCreary forebodes the factional split of twelve months will jeopardize the chances of Democratic success. Maybe they are both right.

O, well, if the "Recollections" published by young Prince Alexander Von Hohenlohe proves a good seller, he can afford to bear the displeasure of the emperor. In fact, if he had a Yankee publisher, we would suspect some advertising design in the royal snub.

We observe that the Paris mob, which exhibited its displeasure with the races so candidly Sunday, robbed the bookmakers before it turned its attention to any other features of the course.

That Broken Marriage Bell club recently organized in New York should have a Co-respondent Ladies' Auxiliary affiliated with it in order to make it thoroughly congenial.

A special from Nashville states that a horse worth $5,000 was stolen from Barnum & Bailey's circus. Why don't they search the press agent?

Gompers, like many another valiant but indiscreet warrior, probably will brave the Cannon's mouth but once.

We hope we may get some German maids as thrifty as Bertha Krupp to join our band of immigrants.

 friends of Polar Explorer Perry.

LEEPER DROPPED DEAD.

Wrestling in Livery Stable When Summons Come.

George Leeper, colored, 50 years old, dropped dead in the door of Charlie Clark's livery stable, 215 South Third street, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. He was employed as a buggy washer and general handy man about the place.
 Leeper had been a hard drinker. At the door he engaged in a political argument with Mike Brunson and several other employees of the stable.
 Leeper playfully struck at Brunson who caught him by the arm. As he did so Leeper jumped back and sank towards the ground. He remained in a sitting posture until taken into the office where he ex-expired. Death came within three minutes. Leeper lived at the stable and had been employed there about three years.

This morning Fred Roth, acting for Coroner Frank Eaker, held an investigation and determined death to have come from heart trouble.
 The body will be buried today in Oak Grove cemetery.

BANK FUNDS SUNK IN WHEAT.

Manager of Wrecked Ontario Concern Speculated in Chicago.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 17.—A director of the wrecked Ontario bank says Manager McGill speculated not only in the New York stock market but in the Chicago wheat pit. McGill admits a shortage of $1,250,000, but bankers place the loss at $500,000 more. McGill admits he speculated without the knowledge of the directors, but says it was for the ultimate good of the bank.

FORTUNE IS LOST

By Widow of Col. Robert Ingersoll When Court Sets Aside Judgment.

Boston, Oct. 17.—Judgment of $138,000 in favor of Mrs. Eva Ingersoll, widow of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll given by court was set aside today by the United States court of appeals. Judgment was given in a suit brought by Mrs. Ingersoll to recover an amount alleged due for re-tal services by her husband in the settlement of the estate of Andrew J.
 Davis, of Butte, Montana.

RECEIVER

MOVES BOOKS AND PAPERS OF DEFUNCT CONCERN.

Mechanics' & Farmers' Savings Bank Will Occupy Rooms, 210 Broadway, October 22.

Cecil Reed, receiver of the E.
 Rehkopf Saddlery company, moved the books and papers of the company and the light office fixtures out of the company's office building at 210 Broadway, into his office in the Columbia building today. The Mechanics' and Farmers' Savings bank takes possession of the building October 22. Before moving in, the bank will have a new steel ceiling placed in the building and make other small repairs to put the building into first-class condition for a bank.

CONSTABLES

Climbed on Pay Car of Illinois Central Yesterday.

"When I come to Paducah next month I think I shall just turn over my Paducah employees' checks to you," Paymaster Newell, of the Illinois Central, stated to Magistrate Charles W. Emery last night. The remark was made in jest, but if conditions are not bettered the joke may materialize in a measure. Yesterday when the pay car rolled into Paducah the constables climbed aboard and began serving processes on the paymaster, attaching wages of railroad men. Every magistrate was represented. Magistrate Emery had 60 attachments against the pay car yesterday.

TAFT AND BACON

Return on Louisiana in Teeth of a Heavy Gale.

Norfolk, Oct. 17.—United States battleship Louisiana, bearing Secretaries Taft and Bacon, returning from Cuba, arrived at Hampton Roads this morning in the teeth of a severe northeast gale with the wind blowing 36 miles an hour. They transferred to the dispatch boat Dolphin in the midst of a heavy rain and left for Washington, where they will arrive tomorrow morning.

DEATH

Came to Senior After He Ran Down a Punt.

Toledo, O., Oct. 17.—Louis A.
 Grisler, of Paulding, senior at the Ohio Wesleyan University and right end on varsity football team, fell dead on the field this afternoon after running down a punt. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause.

Tribesmen Rise.

Tangier, Oct. 17.—Two thousand factional tribesmen are assembled south of Fez, planning to cut off the city and capture the sultan. Orders were issued for the enlistment of 3,000 regulars to meet the insurgents. A big battle is expected in the near future. The uprising is one of the most formidable ever organized in Morocco.

CREDITORS MEET

NOVEMBER FIRST

Referee E. W. Bagby Fixes Date For Them.

First Judgment Agreed on in Suits Against E. Rehkopf Saddlery Company.

NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE.

Creditors of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, now in the bankruptcy court, will meet November 1 to choose a trustee. Referee E. W.
 Bagby today announced he had set this date.

Today a duplicate of the schedule of liabilities and assets of the bankrupt firm of E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, which was filed in the state court, was filed in the bankruptcy court. This is not what the referee wanted, and he ordered another prepared.

The first action to be taken in the state court in the matter of the E.
 Rehkopf Saddlery company, litigation came this morning. It is practically a judgment against the firm, not the individuals, E. Rehkopf and John Rehkopf and others, for the total of $11,875.

Attorney John G. Miller, representing the plaintiffs, made a motion to take the petitions as confessed in the suits of Gray & Dudley, for $350; B. A. James Manufacturing company, for $325, and James Salen, executor, for $11,000 against the E.
 Rehkopf Saddlery company. The court sustained the motion. The judgment will be filed tomorrow.

County Court.

This afternoon County Judge R. T.
 Lightfoot is trying the case of L. P.
 Harris, administrator of J. H. Price, against J. B. Harper for the possession of nine cows.

Deeds Filed.

Albert F. Miles to Sidney Huggins, property in the county, $1,175.
 C. A. Smith and others to W. A.
 Berry, power of attorney.

Court Notes.

The final dividend from the bankrupt estate of James W. Sellars was ordered by the trustee, Cecil Reed, yesterday.

J. P. O'Meara, of Elizabethtown, Ky., was sworn in to practice at the McCracken circuit bar.

In the case of J. T. Reddick against S. C. Vaughan and others, the judgment was set aside.

Judge Reed spent the greater part of the morning in settling cases and disposing of demurrers and minor matters preliminary to the hearing of actions.

How the Blood Flow Affects Health.
 Few people appreciate the necessity of keeping the blood in every way in good condition if they would have good health.

There are two factors in disease, which, by an endless variety of changes and combinations define every departure from normal conditions.
 These are the BLOOD and the NERVES. They sustain life, and END IT.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow or had consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

Right the blood flow, and they all leave.

This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months it is necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.

Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

PRINCETON CURATOR ENDS LIFE

Professor's Aid Takes Poison Because of Domestic Trouble.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—Jacob Geismar, curator of the geological laboratory of Princeton University and an assistant to Professor W. B.
 Scott, swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium today and died twenty minutes later. He was 60 years old and came to this country from Germany twenty years ago. Domestic trouble is given as the cause of the suicide.

FIVE AND COSTS

ASSESSED AGAINST COUNTY JUDGE LIGHTFOOT.

Looked Just Like Any Other Citizen Before the Ordinance Court—Horse Lease.

The name of R. T. Lightfoot, no other personage than the honorable county judge, was entered on the police court docket this morning, and directly opposite it was written "$5 and costs," and it is all on account of a loose stable door.

Judge Lightfoot's horse was found roaming about Lang park Monday night and brought to the city pound by Cow Policeman Lyeurgus Rice.
 The identity of the owner was established and a warrant followed.
 The defendant made no fight but stated he noticed that others had stock roving about.

"I informed Mr. Rice that he must bring up all stock found running at large, and that I intended to try all cases; to treat them all alike," Police Judge Puryear declared.

Other cases: Kenney Murray breach of peace dismissed; Tom Clark, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Little Gray, colored, malicious cutting, continued; William Doyle, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Alice Perkins, colored, drunkenness, $1 and costs.

Sues Hill for $10,000,000.

New York, Oct. 17.—Action to compel the restitution of more than $10,000,000 by J. J. Hill, alleged to be wrongful profit secured by him in the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy deal, was begun today in the United States district court by Clarence Venner, who claims to hold 300 shares of Great Northern stock. The action is against the Great Northern Railway company and J. J. Hill as president and director.

A Sale for the Mothers' Benefit Friday Only

We want the mothers of Paducah to know what a splendid department in every way is our Children's Department, and the big bargains we are giving in everything for boys every day. Some days, tis true, the bargains are greater than others, and the mothers should learn to look out for these days, as they mean money to them.

Friday, for instance, is one of the big days, and here are the offerings, which are indeed good ones:

Boys' black ribbed 15c stockings 10c
 All sizes from 5 1/2 to 9
 Boys' fleeced lined underwear, 35c a garment, Friday 21c

"Real Love Letters of a Real Girl"

"I am not going to beat the big drum of sentiment and make a wailful noise. Nothing is so dead as a dead infatuation.
 The more a person has been infatuated, the more he resents an attempt to galvanize the dull, dead thing into life. I am wise, you see, to the end. And reasonable, too, I hope. And brave.
 And brave, I tell you. Do you think I will be a coward, and cry out? I make you a present of everything; of the love and happy thoughts, of the pleasant dreams and plans, of the little prayers sent up, and the blessings called down—there were a great many every day—of the kisses, and all the dear sweetness.
 Take it all. I want nothing from you in return. But do you suppose that, having given you all this, I am going to give you my soul as well? To moan my life away, my beautiful life?
 You are not worth it. You are not worth anything, hardly.
 You are unstable, invertebrate. My life shall be splendid in spite of you. You shall not cheat me of one single chance of heaven."—(From Franklin Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther in the
